I would like my customers to know the “real story” behind our chicken wings. One Friday night back in 1964, I was working behind the bar (as I still do now). It was busy that night. My mother, Teressa, was in the kitchen cooking and dad, Frank, was popping in the restaurant greeting customers. It was one of those good Friday nights, and dad, Frank, was popping in the restaurant (as I still do now). It was busy that night. My mother, Teressa, was in the kitchen cooking the stock pot (for soup). She looked at them like chicken wings — She was about to put them in the freezer. They looked like chicken wings, but I was afraid to say so!

To make a long story short, yes, they were chicken wings — She had them frozen in the stack pot (for soup). She looked at them and said, “It’s a shame to put such beautiful wings in a stack pot.”

The rest is history! Mother Teressa created the famous chicken wing sauce, served all over the world! Wherever you go — when you mention chicken wings — you remember Mother Teressa and that famous night in Buffalo! Respectfully yours, “The Rooster”
